

THE ANNALS INDEX VOLUME 21

Margaret Byrne Swain

University of California, Davis, USA

Annals, Volume 21 offers a unique Special Issue 21(2) on Antarctic Tourism. This pioneering effort is a souvenir of scholarship and an indispensable reference for future decision making concerning tourism development in this vast continent. The inclusion of a color map is another first for Annals. Other locales in this volume range from the Seychelles to Ireland. Topics addressed include the impact of mountaineering and a range of analytical methods measuring various parameters of tourism. Several articles contribute vigorous debate to questions of discrimination, racism, colonialism and ethnic heritage in the tourism experience of producers and consumers.
